

TAURUS HOROSCOPE

SUN IN TAURUS:

Your sun is in Taurus meaning you have a duplicity or gender of feminine. Your triplicity or element for the Taurus sign is earth. Your quadriplicity or quality of this sign is fixed. These three ingredients are the building blocks to the Taurus personality meaning you tend to be introverted, resistant to change, and are inclined to be very practical about decisions in your life.

Your ruling planet is Venus and you are likely to enjoy "the good life" due to the sensual nature of Venus. Your symbol is the bull which can be fierce when messed with, the bull is also quiet, nurturing, affectionate, gentle, and stubborn. The Taurus glyph, ♉, represents the head and horns of the bull and in a symbolic, spiritual sense; it symbolizes a half moon that rests on a circle of sun.

The Taurus' dominant keyword or mantra is usually I have with a polarity or exact opposite of Scorpio. This means Scorpio's while attractive are usually a bad match for a Taurus. Taurus rules the neck and throat which means you can be prone to colds, laryngitis, sore throats, and thyroid problems.

Your lucky day is Friday and your luck numbers are six (6) and four (4). Your magical birthstone is the emerald which protects against infidelity and deceit, improves your memory, and ensures loyalty. Another stone that is special to Taurus is Sardius which gives you unusual insights into your heart. Your special colors are Pale Blue and Mauve. Your astral color is red which enhances passion, power, excitement, and strength. Your "need" color is yellow which stimulates your environment and exhilarates you. Your "clothing color" is rose since it gives you balance and harmony. Your health scents are ones made of roses or peaches. Your lucky symbol is the triangle because it is the right amount on each side and your luck charms are a rabbit's foot or a white candle.

Cities that would benefit you or make you feel like that you belong there are Dublin, Lucerne, Leipzig, and St. Louis. The countries that would enhance your feeling of well being are Ireland, Switzerland, Cypress and Greece. The flowers attached to the Taurus birth sign are violets, ophrys, and poppies with your trees being Cypress and Apple. The metal that benefits you the most is Copper and your sign rules over all cattle type animals. Your most likeable trait is your dependability.

Your spiritual angel guides are the Al Debaran Star, Asmodel Angel, Plavwell Guardian Angel, and the Topaz is your spiritual stone.

GENERAL OVERVIEW

You are the person people count on in the “clutch” situations and your greatest strength resides in our tenacity and your steady, relentless drive. You are a purposeful achiever with endless patience to get the job accomplished. You are not fond of change and prefer to not be rushed into any new situations as new “adventures” or situations cause great anxiety in you. Also, you have a tendency to stay in an unsatisfactory relationship because you so dislike change. You have a temper but you rarely show it to those around you. You do not look to initiate a challenge with another person but they had best be ready for your wrath should they challenge you.

You are caring, giving, and affectionate but you have fondness for all things beautiful. You have elegant taste, are a truly creative person with a keen eye for what is valuable. The Taurus is known for their love of material possessions and people are fascinated with your down to earth personality. They can see that you have a true, romantic poet’s soul. You have a steadfast personality with a deep appreciation for the “finer” things in life; you also tend to be driven for your search for security both emotionally and financially.

Your basic nature is one that needs and looks for permanence in career, love, marriage, and home. Beneath your mellow and down to earth exterior, you are sensual, sentimental, private, and self-contained as a person. Living with you is not easy since you can be dogmatic, opinionated, suspicious, and secretive.

Your planet, Venus, emphasizes the social nature of the Taurus but you can be shy and reserved with strangers. You are a wonderful hostess and friend around those you know and feel comfortable or have a connection with.

THE INNER YOU

You need order in your life and you are apt to get anxious when things get out of control. Since the unfamiliar makes you feel uncomfortable, you are not inclined to experience new and different situations. In other words, you like your routine and prefer to experience new things on your own time and agenda. As a Taurus, change is not an easy thing for you and you must be willing to be more open to change. Your instinct to “collect” things spills over into your personal relationships. You were probably the kid who brought home all of the “strays”, animal and people, to help them. You hold fast and hard to those you care about, and you tend to only have a few close friends as opposed many acquaintances. You are self-conscious around strangers and you are at your happiest in a loving, committed relationship. As a Taurus, you are deeply sensitive and it wounds you gravely when you are rebuffed or harsh words are spoken to you.

HOW OTHERS SEE YOU

People see you as a serene and calming influence in any situation. You are considered very dependable and are admired for your organized mind and your ability to multi-task while keeping one eye on everything.

FAMOUS TAURUS PEOPLE

Many famous Taurus' share your traits. Ann Margaret, Fred Astaire, Burt Bacharach, Lionel Barrymore, Irving Berlin, Cate Blanchet, Carol Burnett, George Clooney and Perry Como are just a few of the famous Taurus people. Others include Cher, Gary Cooper, Bing Crosby, Albert Finney, Ella Fitzgerald, Audrey Hepburn, Bianca Jagger, Leonardo Da Vinci, Golda Meir, Jack Nicholson, Florence Nightingale, Eva Peron, Pope John Paul II, Jimmy Stewart, Shirley Temple and Rudolph Valentino. Others include Barbara Streisand, Adolf Hitler, Sigmund Freud, William Shakespeare, and Queen Elizabeth II.

LOVE MATCHES

The Taurus Woman Romantic Inclinations:

You are considered the "Da Vinci" in the art of seduction and are a consummate mistress of love. You are not promiscuous and any man that picks up on your love signals had better be in it for the long haul. You are not a lady for the day, casual is not in your vocabulary because your deep, internal need is for security and stability. A Taurus woman is the perfect stereotype of the "old fashioned" woman. This means that you are devoted, protective, a natural earth mother who loves, nurtures and gives of your strength. You are a very earthy person when it comes to your passions and once you fall in love that brings out the best in you. You are a passionate bed partner and devoted mate with open, affectionate, and demonstrative nature. Your sexual nature when deeply committed borders on "romance novel lusty". 😊 For the devotion you give to your love, you demand a lot in return since you believe that there should be balance in the giving and receiving of love. You like to be courted, pursued, and wooed but you also plan your love life like everything else in your life...to the very last detail, which takes some of the spontaneity out of the situation.

You are secure in your sense of judgment and you trust your instincts. You are a true romantic with a serene, unaffected, sexy approach to love. You are artistic, elegant, and good natured. You are extremely loyal to those you love and expect that same devotion and loyalty from those in your life. If you are lied to, then the person who lied to you loses that loyalty and devotion.

The Taurus Woman Amorous Combinations:

Taurus & Aries:

You both have a mutual interest in making love. While Taurus is sensual, Aries is emotional. You will have fun while the affair lasts but if marriage happens, it will be a very difficult marriage.

Taurus & Taurus:

It is not a very exciting relationship but it is well matched since you are both earthy and direct. Boredom is the threat in this relationship along with the potential for separate hobbies, could provoke passiveness nature to assert itself.

Taurus & Gemini:

You are completely unlike in temperament. Taurus is fixed and solid in opinions while Gemini is flighty and restless. Taurus is a creature of habit whereas Gemini needs constant adventure and surprise. You would drive each other nuts.

Taurus & Cancer:

Both of these signs are home lovers, sentimentalists, and highly sexy. Taurus' are placid, easy going nature is a good antidote to Cancer's moodiness. Plain-spoken Taurus has to be careful to not hurt Cancer's feelings with their honesty. Cancer needs Taurus' strength to depend upon while Taurus needs Cancer's ability to give concerned feedback and loyalty. This pairing is definitely a harmonious pairing.

Taurus & Leo:

Leo's constant demands for praise and adulation are forever competing with Taurus. Taurus needs appreciation and Leo needs worship but neither gets that from one another. There is a basic conflict with Taurus' desire for well-ordered world and Leo's larger than life existence. While they are sexually matched, that is the only situation that they are matched in.

Taurus & Virgo:

It is love at first sight with Taurus and Virgo. You are both homebodies and share the same intellectual pursuits. Taurus' tenacity and Virgo's sharp mind are a positive success as a team. They may have to adjust to each other sexually since Taurus is touchy-feely and Virgo's passions have to be awakened. Overall, they are a good pairing for love, romance, and security.

Taurus & Libra:

Taurus finds Libra a warm and vibrant romantic partner. Taurus balances Libra's indecisive nature. Both like money and finer thing but Taurus spends carefully while Libra tends to splurge impulsively. It has a fast burn on the romantic scale, meaning that it is a fun pairing but one that will not last.

Taurus & Scorpio:

Taurus and Scorpio are complete opposites but they do have a little more in common than most polar opposites. Both are determined and ambitious but neither is much for compromising. They are two strong wills and together they become obsessively sexual. Scorpio is overbearing, possessive and jealous and this makes Taurus simmer with resentment. It will be a wild and crazy affair but neither has the tolerance to make it last.

Taurus & Sagittarius:

These two are attracted to each other physically but Taurus finds Sagittarius' roving eye and search for novelty aggravating and frustrating. Sagittarius is easy going and has a "live and let live" attitude where Taurus is serious and possessive when it comes to their personal relationships. There are no dull moments in this pairing but lots of fighting. This pairing is for affairs only and most definitely not for the long term.

Taurus & Capricorn:

This is a strong match for Taurus as both have passions that are straightforward and uncomplicated. It is not much in the romance department but lots of healthy sex and sharing of the same goals. They tend to like the same people and hobbies. Capricorn can be secretive but makes Taurus feel secure. This pairing is definitely a candidate for long term success.

Taurus & Aquarius:

They do not approve of each other. Taurus tends to be conservative, careful, and closed mouthed. Aquarius is unconventional, innovative, and vivacious which bothers Taurus since they are uncomfortable around people don't know. Taurus is lusty and passionate whereas Aquarius works on a mental plane. In other words, Taurus=Earth and Aquarius=Water, so when you add the two together, you get mud. Mud is very messy and Taurus does not like mess. Taurus finds it hard to keep Aquarius at home or satisfied. Aquarius is a fancy free lover who resents the ties that bind. This isn't even affair worthy.

Taurus & Pisces:

Pisces has difficulty understanding the way Taurus materialistic and realistic approach to life and Taurus constantly has to reel Pisces back in from fantasy world but they do very well together and would make well-suited couple.

DECANTES OF TAURUS

You are in the second decantes of Taurus and have a keyword of evaluation. Your constellation is Eridamys and the River Po which is a winding current that symbolizes justice. Your planetary sub ruler is Mercury. Mercury combines with Venus here to give you an inquisitive mind and a great talent for organization. You have a conservative approach to most things; possess intuitive powers that you should USE more often. (HmMMM...wonder where I heard this before.) ☺ You inspire trust on the part of others, have an instinct for cooperation but need the independence to set your own pace. Your mental powers are also very strong.

PARTS OF THE BODY RULED BY TAURUS

Taurus rules the throat and neck including the vocal cords, palate and tonsils. Taureans have long, expressive necks and women of this sign have lovely skin around neck and collar bones. You are also known for your melodious speaking voice and you have very keen taste buds and thoroughly enjoy foods of all types. Unfortunately, Taureans have a tendency to gain weight as they grow older (I personally think it is our Greek heritage ☺) and are particularly vulnerable to colds, ear aches, tonsillitis, sore throats, laryngitis, swollen glands, and minor injuries around the neck. Taurus rules the thyroid and Taurus' ruling Planet, Venus rules the Para-thyroids which control our calcium levels. Taureans also are inclined to suffer from back strain. You require lots of exercise it helps you expand your lungs and clear the blood stream of toxins. It also helps remove carbon in the blood as Taurus retains this in their system and it slows them down and makes them tired.

Diet Tips:

You should keep your diet low in starch, fat, and sugar. Most Taureans like to eat fatty foods and dislike exercise. Sometimes Taurus can suffer from puffy eyes and jowls. Your cell salt is Sulphate of Sodium which is a mineral that controls the amount of water in the system. This cell salt is present in the liver, pancreas, and the hormones of the kidneys.

Foods that are recommended for Taurus are asparagus, beets, spinach, horseradish, Swiss chard, cauliflower, cucumber, onions, pumpkin, cranberries, raw onions, and celery. These foods help clear out your system after an "over-indulgence". Carbohydrates and heavy, rich foods should be avoided and in order to keep your thyroid functioning well, eat foods with natural iodine like fish and seafood. Other foods that are beneficial to people born under this sign are eggs, liver, kidney beans, wheat germ, fresh fruit, and green salads. Drink plenty of water to keep your system flushed.

EROGENOUS ZONES

Taurean's erogenous zones usually tend to be the throat and the neck. They prefer light touching, kissing, and fondling in this area.

YOUR SUN IS IN THE 10TH HOUSE:

The 10th House is the House of Career and the Sun is the planet of vitality and individuality. It gives you a strong sense of self and a drive to succeed. You will achieve success in your middle live and in today's world; middle life is considered the 50's and 60's. The positive point of having your sun in this house is your leadership abilities and the power to influence others while the negative point is sometimes you can be arrogant and dictatorial.

YOUR SUN IS IN THE TRINE MOON:

Trine is considered a third harmonic aspect in astrology; this means the planets are at a 120° angle. Trines represent gifts and talents and they are considered the easiest and most flowing of all the aspects. Trines do not require effort on our part and tend to be fun; it makes us exceptionally lazy when it comes to motivation to accomplish something. Trines often result in finding ourselves in ruts and behavior patterns that are hard to change. The positive aspect of having a trine moon is having a well integrated personality that is adaptable to others, makes for a harmonious home life and gets promotions in life. As with everything, there is a polar opposite, so the negative aspects of this position are inner conflicts about self, insecurity, and emotional oversensitivity.

YOUR SUN IS IN OPPOSITION MARS:

Oppositions are the second harmonic aspect in astrology; this means the planets are at a 180° angle. Oppositions represent balance and perspective; these planets are opposite each other on the horoscope chart and usually are the same polarity and modality. This means usually they are both feminine/masculine (polarity) and cardinal/fixed/mutable (modality). They are motivated by the same core issues but approach them from different ends of the spectrum. Taureans with opposition Mars have a tendency to be quarrelsome, headstrong, lacking in stay power, is hasty and takes uncalculated risks.

YOUR SUN IS IN SEXTILE URANUS:

A Sextile is the sixth harmonic aspect in astrology; this means that the planets are at a 60° angle. They are considered to be "soft" aspects and tend to have the same polarity but with different elements and modalities. Sextiles signify opportunities but these are the type of opportunities that you must work for in order to activate them. Sextiles also denote harmony and balance. The positive aspect of this is your leadership ability, strong initiative, touch of inspiration, and genius in thinking. The negative aspect of this is you tend to have nervous strain or stress abound in your life. In other words, if you aren't worrying, you ain't happy.

YOUR SUN IS IN SQUARE PLUTO:

Squares are the fourth harmonic aspect in astrology and are at a 90° angle. These are considered the first truly "hard" aspects and signify friction, conflict, and stress; since they are this way, squares are usually the "kick in the pants" to get us off the "pity wagon" and do something to alleviate the discomfort. The positive aspect of this positioning is a strong character and you are self-confident. The negative aspect of this positioning is an inclination toward selfishness, aloof, and anti-social behavior. The negative aspect is due in some part to the Taurus naturally uncomfortable in unfamiliar settings, so you come off as aloof and anti-social even though that is not the intent.

YOUR MOON IS IN VIRGO:

The moon is considered the crescent of the soul where soul receives and holds the spirit. It is regarded as receptive, responding, yin qualities and is most often associated with the feminine or female along with memories, past habits, and conditioning in our unconscious. It also denotes the coming of change. The bright side of a Virgo Moon is that you are intellectual, meticulous, industrious, steadfast, and responsible. There is a dark side to the Virgo Moon and it is often critical, high strung, stand offish, argumentative, and just to make it even more fun...a leaning towards hypochondria.

Virgo stabilizes the shifting aspect of the moon. You have a fine and discriminating mind which allows you to pursue knowledge and learning in order to use what you have learned. You are meticulous in sifting through information and question all that is told to you. You can be skeptical so you love to discuss ideas and probe into opinions of others. It is sort of like when the four year old child is saying "but why is the sky blue, and why, why, why". ☺ It's not to be aggravating but you truly wish to know why. While you are curious and want to know why, that does not mean you will change your pre-conceived notions on subjects. You are not so stubborn that if you are proven wrong that you will continue to hold to that idea. In other words, while you are a seeker of truth, you can also admit when you are wrong provided there is sufficient evidence.

Your eye is on the long term profit of things as opposed to immediate gain. You are likely to bring that extra touch of perfectionism and professionalism in your approach to problems. You lean towards worrying and fretting over what MIGHT go wrong and try to cover it up with a smile. Due to your perfectionism, you can often be fussy and critical because you live by logic and common sense. You find it hard to deal with illogical, scatterbrained people as they upset or mess with your logic and serenity. You are very selective in your friends and the activities you choose.

You are very inclined to be attracted to people quite unlike you. In other words, we are attracted to what we feel we lack in ourselves. Unconsciously, you are afraid of anger and feeling vulnerable so you lean towards living in the illusion that your love lives are calm, stable, and under control. Your Taurus earth sign + your Virgo Moon= practical, industrious, and money conscious. You also have keen mental powers, a strong vein of common sense with an intelligent, thoughtful approach to life.

FAMOUS PEOPLE WITH MOON IN VIRGO:

Famous people with Moon in Virgo are Ingrid Bergman, Winston Churchill, Bill Cosby, Marlene Dietrich, Mel Gibson, President Johnson, Leo Tolstoy, Shirley McClain, and J.P. Morgan.

YOUR MOON IS IN THE 3RD HOUSE:

The 3rd House is the house of Communication and the Moon is the planet of Emotions & Instincts. You tend to think emotionally and have a strong imagination. You dislike your current life and your routine is often marked by short trips to get out of the house. You have a great memory and make a good impression when people meet you or you are seen in public. The positive of having the Moon in the 3rd House is your inquisitive mind, good common sense, successful in caring for family and friends. The negative points to this are the inclination to be moody and interfere.

YOUR MERCURY IS IN ARIES:

*Mercury is the planet of intelligence, communication, and mental activities. Mercury is what makes life understandable. It rules over your intelligence, perception, reasoning, speaking, and writing. It also reflects the way you see, hear, understand and assimilate information. It controls the function of your nerves, arms, hands, and fingers. When Mercury is prominent, it means you're able to speak easily; you are clever, a shrewd bargainer, and a great storyteller. You have a good memory, can be a talented debater, have quick, high strung movements...basically, you talk like all Greeks and Italians...with your hands☺ Mercury rules that voice so most people who have Mercury in Aries tend to be successful at public speaking, singing and acting.*

The negative side of a Mercury influence is that it produces a predisposition to be sarcastic and argumentative. Having Aries in your Mercury is a strong position since it influences and imparts the aggressiveness and brilliance of intellect of Aries to the Taurean personality. You have a propensity to be witty, outspoken, and original. You have a sharp, sarcastic wit to your conversation with use of highly expressive language.

Mercury with Aries tends to bring out your impatient side; this positioning makes you want to get things done now and your way. You are fond of writing and reading but you can be impulsive and happen to be blessed with luck. Your first decisions tend to be the right ones, working off of your gut but the Taurean side of you make you second guess yourself. You suffer from headaches.

YOUR MERCURY IS IN THE 10TH HOUSE:

The 10th house is the house of Career and Mercury is the planet of the mind. You have deftness in using facts that you know profitably. You can adapt to different kinds of people but it takes time. You have a talent in writing and communications as well as being able to deal with people in authority successfully. There is a bad or negative point to this as your career can often have unforeseen disruptions or uncertainties.

YOUR MERCURY IS IN SQUARE URANUS:

Since I already discussed what a square was in a previous section, I will go straight into the good and bad points. You are clever, original, and independent. You are self-reliant although you can be opinionated and brusque. You have a tendency to waste energy worrying about issues.

YOUR MERCURY IS IN OPPOSITION NEPTUNE:

You are highly creative with an artistic imagination. This indicates that you do have a talent for acting and clairvoyance. There are times where your inability to concentrate overwhelms all else in your life and can bring about some of the impulsiveness mentioned earlier in the reading. You are interested in mystical and spiritual subjects but do not believe you have these capabilities.

YOUR MERCURY IS IN TRINE PLUTO:

You are versatile and flexible but you quickly become restless. This restless behavior can lead to nervous tension and illogical reasoning. You should bring about change through the written word as you have a great talent for putting thoughts to paper.

YOUR MERCURY IS IN SQUARE ASCENDANT:

An ascendant is known as your rising sign and is the personality that you show to other people. The ascendant gives us our first impressions of the world outside our door as it shows us what to expect and encounter. Another way to describe the ascendant is the "mask we wear" so we can relate with other people. Since Mercury is the planet of the mind, you try very hard for people to see you as a mind and intelligence. This adaption opens the door to meet a variety of people and learn from them.

YOUR VENUS IS IN TAURUS:

Venus in this position means you are affectionate and romantic but you do not normally give love away too quickly. A bad love affair is devastating to you and so emotionally, you take your time when giving your heart to another. Falling in love for you is an emotional process and is not done logically. You have a very physical and earthy type love nature and sex is an integral part of that relationship. You are very demonstrative and generous with your love, sometimes too much. You tend to lose a part of you when you get that involved. You tend to want to make your lover belong to you. You have a keen artistic eye, love to eat, and if not careful, fight from becoming overweight.

YOUR VENUS IS IN THE 10TH HOUSE:

The 10th House is the house of Career and Venus is the planet of Love and Pleasure. You have copious amounts of charm and diplomacy to further your love interests. You should be involved in artistic and cultural work. The good aspect of this is most of the time love will equate to a good marriage.

YOUR VENUS IS IN OPPOSITION MARS:

You are romantic, enthusiastic, and passionate with feelings of love and warmth. These are things easily expressed to those you love, whether its friends, family or a lover. On the flip side, if you are not careful you can come across as quarrelsome, impulsive, and hypersensitive. You need to find a good balance between aggressiveness and charm.

YOUR VENUS IS IN CONJUNCTION JUPITER:

This is your first conjunction in the chart. A conjunction is the first harmonic aspect in astrology and generally means an aspect at 0° angle. Conjunctions represent a merging of energies between two planets, in this case, Venus and Jupiter. They are considered neutral aspects meaning they do not lean too far to the positive or negative. Conjunctions have tremendous power since they denote the beginning of a new cycle in your life for the two planets involved. Conjunctions carry a lot of creative energy and the initiating force to start something new. This period is best for harmonious relationships and love being easily expressed. This pairing also brings about good money luck and with the conjunction aspect, it brings about magnetic sex appeal and charm.

YOUR VENUS IS IN SQUARE ASCENDANT:

Since a square is one of the hard aspects, it is safe to say that finding love will be fraught with some difficulty but once you get over "the hump", the person you find will be most definitely worthy of what you have to offer.

YOUR MARS IS IN SCORPIO:

Mars and Scorpio are both slower moving signs and tend to take longer to act but when they do it acts with a tremendous degree of precision and focus. Mars in Scorpio like spend time exploring our consciousness, to investigate the depths of our emotional and soul nature, face our demons, and find the key ingredient that makes us feel this way. Mars in Scorpio indicates a successful and courageous warrior. You are persistence, can be intense and resourceful. Your strength is your determination and relentlessness to see things through the very end. Everything you do is directed to a purpose. You have a strong and deeply sensual nature that sometimes is displayed in an overabundance of emotion such as jealousy, anger, resentment or hurt feelings. With Mars in Scorpio, it also enhances your emotional state which compels your creative drive.

YOUR MARS IS IN THE 4TH HOUSE:

The 4th House is the House of Home, Early & Latter Parts of Life and Mars is the Planet of Energy and Assertiveness. You have a great desire to live independently and have the talent to make a lot of money from home.

YOUR MARS IS IN OPPOSITION JUPITER:

You have a strong willpower and optimism. You tend to cultivate a positive outlook in life most of the time. You inspire confidence but can be restless, impulsive, and extravagant.

YOUR MARS IS IN TRINE URANUS:

With your Mars in this position, you are practical, energetic, resourceful and intellectual but have an inclination to get impatient and tense when things do not fall exactly into place as you expect them to fall.

YOUR JUPITER IS IN TAURUS:

This is a very harmonious pairing and Taurus happens to be the money sign of the zodiac. What is more interesting; Jupiter is the planet that brings abundance. You are careful about how you handle money because security is important to you but you definitely have your moments when you are impulsive in your buying. You are a collector since you have an “eye” for art, regardless of its incantation. All of your alignments say that you are meant to make money from home and you will be successful as a writer or interior decorator. The luckiest times of year are when the sun is in the signs of Taurus, Virgo, and Capricorn.

YOUR JUPITER IS IN THE 10TH HOUSE:

The 10th House is the House of Career and Jupiter is the Planet of Luck and Expansion. You are confident in yourself, sociable when comfortable in the situation, and are able to deal with people successfully.

YOUR JUPITER IS IN SQUARE ASCENDENT:

As I have mentioned before, Squares make you work for their gifts and for your success to come to fruition, you are going to have to work hard. You will be successful if you are willing to do the “leg work”.

YOUR SATURN IS IN LIBRA:

*Libra is a favorable sign for Saturn. You are gifted with good judgment and for making the right impression on others. You can balance aggressive and diplomacy when dealing with people outside “personal” relationships. Part of Saturn’s “lessons” is to bring sorrows and disappointments into relationships. Your early love affair turns out to be the love of your life but ends in loss. (I believe they are talking about your husband; not “E”). You can be susceptible to back injuries and kidney problems.*

YOUR SATURN IS IN THE 4th HOUSE:

Saturn is the planet of Discipline and Limitation and the 4th House is the house of Home. You are very concerned and devoted to those important to you, most especially your family. You assumed responsibility for your family at an early age and indicate an early loss of a father. You look over those who cared for you as a child now that they are old. Family is everything with you.

YOUR SATURN IS IN SQUARE URANUS:

You have will power, initiative, and inventiveness. You are extremely efficient and resourceful when you put your mind to it. You are also, what we would call an original.

YOUR URANUS IS IN CANCER:

This means that you have a heightened sensitivity to other people with a highly developed imagination and a subconscious mind that borders on psychic awareness. Your intuition or your vibes should ALWAYS be trusted. Valuable insights come to you through sudden and unexpected feelings. You make sudden leaps of logic and they always end well. Again, this is telling you that you will be very successful in working from the home.

YOUR URANUS IS IN THE 12TH HOUSE:

The 12th House is the House of Secrets, Sorrows, & Self-doing and Uranus is the Planet of Change & Originality. You are very intuitive and are attracted to unusual beliefs in religion and metaphysics. You are considered a humanitarian and you are compassionate and want to help many issues.

YOUR NEPTUNE IS IN LIBRA:

You are part of the love generation; you continually seek harmony and balance in your life. You are deeply disturbed by all of the injustice in the world and have a strong belief in the concept of brotherly love and resistance to equality. Neptune in Libra is about partnership and marriage. This pairing produces a magnetic attraction to the opposite sex.

YOUR NEPTUNE IS IN THE 4TH HOUSE:

The 4th House is the House of Home and Neptune is the Planet of Spirituality and Illusion. You have an idealized picture of what your home life should be like and your latter years will be spent in a faraway place. Since this is in the house of home and planet of spirituality, I am assuming that you will be with a love enjoying the world and finding a true spirituality. You are a good and stimulating parent, your children are your all but they worry constantly about you.

YOUR NEPTUNE IS IN SEXTILE PLUTO:

The interest you have in spirituality, the occult are used positively, and continued use of your spiritual side will enhance and open your gift of clairvoyance.

YOUR NEPTUNE IS IN SQUARE ASCENDANT:

I'm seeing a pattern in your houses (mostly 4th and 10th) and your ascendants (almost all square). So overall, you are a definite family oriented person and it is difficult for you to function without that in your life...you need somebody to care for and worry about. The squares show that it's a hard haul to get where you want to be with this but you have the willpower, strength, and determination to stay this course.

YOUR PLUTO IS IN LEO:

You have strong pride and a will to prevail over obstacles. The problems come when you try to convince yourself as everyone who knows you can see this. You can't see the strength in yourself since you feel as if the "cosmos" is out to get you but as with any religious or spiritual belief, you are given what you can handle.

YOUR PLUTO IS IN THE 2ND HOUSE:

The 2nd House is the House of Possession and Pluto is the Planet of Transformation. There are several changes coming to your life including money, home, family, love, and career. Be ready and on the lookout for these signs. Right now, you are missing some obvious signs directing you to accomplish something.

YOUR ASCENDANT IS IN CANCER:

You are very sensitive to the emotional signals of other people and have extraordinary insight into human motives. You can be perceived as "difficult to penetrate" but that is due to your cautious nature regarding relationships. Once you let people in, they realize what a warm, affectionate, loving and giving nature you have. You can be adaptable to other people though you are not liable to make instant friends. It definitely takes a while for you to allow people to get close. Sometimes, you can be moody and people take that, as you are not in a receptive mood. Since Cancer Ascendants can be as moody as their Cancer brethren can, you can be crabby, impatient, and exhibit a "snappy" temper. People are careful of what they say since they fear hurting your feelings.

These same sensitivities are what make you special and you possess great imagination and awareness. You are tuned into the nuances of other people's motivations that you are actually able to absorb what others are feeling or thinking. The issue with this is you can build up a lot of residual negative energy and you need to make sure you do some sort of cleansing on a regular basis. (Chakra Clearing, Reiki, Meditation, etc). You are practical, clever, and very observant of people.

You have obstacles in your path but you surmount each difficulty and succeed. You have great tenacity of purpose and with each obstacle you overcome, the stronger and more self-assured you are. The Moon influences the Cancer Ascendant. Influence of the Moon bestows kindness, imagination, sympathy, deep emotion, and the ability to cherish and protect.

YOUR MIDHEAVEN IS IN ARIES:

Mid-Heaven is the highest point in a chart. It is a reflection of what you've become and how you are perceived or judged by the world. Also, it relates to our career and life paths. Mid-Heaven is the most public and prominent point in the chart but it is also the most lonely and isolated. It is the public face we show everyone and the way we assume responsibility in our societal role.

LIFE PATH TAROT CARDS:

THE MOON #18:

This life path card is interesting since normally it indicates a time of spirituality, intuition, and inspiration. It is exactly what you will experience this year. While you may feel as if you are groping in the dark or losing your sense of direction, but the moon shines brightly on your efforts. This card represents your unconscious unfolding and you will feel or sense a new connection spiritually in your life. This is the cycle of your inner development.

It is associated with inner feminine energy and stirs up deep feelings and creativity. These energies motivate us to accomplish our goals and are asking us to open ourselves to the creativity it stimulates. This card is asking to incorporate that intuition, new awareness and spirituality into your life. Be careful that you do not ignore this sensitivity or intuition. New ideas and creative forms are emerging within you but they have yet to take final shape; consider this the work in progress. It would be beneficial to keep a journal or diary about this phase you are about to enter. This is your lifetime personality symbol. You have a great deal of magnetism and your personality has the capacity of bringing light into darkness. Since you feel very deeply, you establish trust and loyalty before allowing others to get to know the true you. The crystals associated with this number and tarot card are Moonstone and Blue Chalcedony (the traveler's stone).

THE HERMIT #9:

Just like the name, people with this card tend to distance themselves from society. You are more comfortable with yourself. While normally, it is not good to spend all of your time alone, the hermit signifies the need to become introspective on occasion and find a new path to follow. On occasion, it is beneficial to slow down and take stock so long as you remember to come back from yourself discovery. The hermit brings self discovery from your past and can bring new light on your current situation. The answers will not give you the answers but show you the path to find those answers.

It is the willingness to follow the path of inner growth. While the journey to a higher level of understanding may never complete, the hermit and his light show you the way to go and when to bring yourself back into the world and use what you have learned. It is a learning done in stages. It is time to look for truth, wisdom, and knowledge outside the traditional venues. The hermit is your lifetime spiritual symbol. It tells you that you have a deep regard for order and harmony which is represented by the Virgo aspect of this symbol. You want to make sure that all of your "old business from the past" is complete before taking the hermit up on his offer of exploring your inner consciousness. The hermit likes to explore intuition and the path of higher learning without the baggage of a past haunting him. When it is time for your journey, you must leave the past in the past and look forward with excitement and openness; with no preconceived notions or beliefs. The stones associated with this number and tarot card are Sapphire and Blue Tourmaline.

TAURUS SPECIFIC CHAKRAS:

ROOT/BASE CHAKRA:

According to your age, you are in the Root/Base or Muladhara Chakra cycle of your life. The Root Chakra is the first of the seven chakra's and is associated with the element earth. It is represented by four blood-red lotus petals each corresponding to greatest joy, natural pleasure, controlling passions, and blissfulness in concentration. This chakra grounds you to the earth, it takes earth's energy and moves it through the other chakra centers. Since Taurus is such a homebody, it would make sense that your "roots" are what you need to focus on in this stage of your life.

It is located at the perineum and deals with the four "S"s...Sexuality, Stability, Sensuality, and Security. It is most especially associated to your recurring karma; meaning that the sum of all of your previous life experiences. It is there for us to access and learn. The Root Chakra needs are instinctual and come from our need to survive, similar to Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs. Crystals recommended to soothe or release the Root Chakra are Emeralds, Blue Sapphires, Garnets, Rubies, Agate, Bloodstone, Smokey Quartz and Carnelian. Aromatherapy for this chakra is scents of Cedarwood, Patchouli, Clove, Marjoram, Cypress, and Myrrh.

SACRAL CHAKRA:

The Sacral or Svadisthana Chakra is important to Taurus because of its strong connection to Venus. This is the second chakra of the seven and is located in your lower abdomen. The second chakra is associated with the element Water and has six lotus petals of white, saffron, or orange color. They symbolize affection, pitilessness, and feeling of all-destructiveness, delusion, disdain, and suspicion. The Sacral Chakra deals with the original life-sustaining energy behind sexual impulse. When this chakra is fully developed, it produces the necessary radiance to unite in a bond of love with another soul. This chakra linked with feeling, reproduction, creativity, joy, and enthusiasm. Any negative emotions are held at the Sacral Chakra, such as anger and fear, and can cause illness if not balanced. Crystals that activate this chakra are Fire Opal, Carnelian, Moonstone, Tourmaline, and Emeralds. Aromatherapy useful for this chakra are Sandalwood, Petigrain, Ylang Ylang, Rose, Jasmine, and Champaca.

HEART CHAKRA:

The Heart or Anahata Chakra is the fourth chakra of the seven and is related to Taurus through its strong connection with Venus. This chakra is associated with the element of Air and is located in the center of the chest. It is represented by a 12 petaled lotus with varying shades of red, white, blue, and black. The petals symbolize lustfulness, fraudulence, indecision, repentance, hop, anxiety, longing, impartiality, arrogance, incompetence, discrimination, and an attitude of defiance. It is associated with the color green or pink and brings peace and understanding when it is functioning. The Heart Chakra embodies unconditional love and compassion, circulation, passion, and devotion. The crystals connected with the Heart Chakra are Peridot, Emerald, Green Jade, Rose Quartz, Pink or Lavender Kunzite, Pink Topaz, Rhodonite, Watermelon Tourmaline, and Rhodocrosite. Aromatherapy useful to this chakra are Geranium, Bergamot, Rose, Clary Sage, Neroli, and Melissa.

THROAT CHAKRA:

The Throat or Vishudda Chakra is the fifth chakra of the seven chakra's and is associated doubly by Taurus and Venus. Vishudda means to purify and has 16 Turquoise lotus petals. This is an important bridge from the Heart Chakra since this is where we speak or sing our love. We also use this to hurt and slander; these types of bitter words are what blocks our Throat Chakra. This chakra oversees expression, communication, fluent thought, independence, and security. Crystals associated with the Throat Chakra are Blue and Yellow Topaz, Quartz, Turquoise, Chryscolla, Aquamarine, and Chalcedony. Aromatherapy that is beneficial to the Throat Chakra is Lavender, Sage, Neroli, Sandalwood, Chamomile, Rosemary, and Thyme.

THIRD EYE OR BROW CHAKRA:

The brow or Ajna Chakra is located directly between the eyebrows on the forehead. The word Ajna means servant or command. It is associated with our psychic awareness or intuition. It represents intuition, clarity, and meditation. The Brow Chakra is related to Taurus through the link of Venus. It is symbolized with 96 lotus petals that come together as two symbolizing that the prana or life force dwells here. The Brow Chakra has the element of Ether since it is a combination of all elements. Crystals used to activate the Brow Chakra are Diamonds, Emeralds, Sapphires, Lapis Lazuli, Sodalite, and Opals. Aromatherapy used for this chakra is Jasmine, Vetiver, Basil, Patchouli, Rosemary, and Frankincense.

NEW YEAR ASTROLOGICAL PREDICITONS:

Well, this coming year, the karma that you have received in being good to others will be coming back to you. You definitely need to find some positive energy in your life. You tend to dwell on things for way too long so they continue to haunt you. The year 2011 is a peculiar year and you will feel as if God is training you for something new and positive upcoming events.

January - May 2011 will be the most productive part of the year for you. Your innate stubbornness as a Taurus will make things hard for you to receive them because you complicate things when there is no need. First and foremost, do not start any new projects until after the 25th of January. Single Taurus has definitely been feeling lonely lately but good fortune in the love department is on the horizon. You just need to cultivate patience and be open to it coming into your life. Don't force it.

In February 2011, you will have periods that are emotionally intense and stressful. This is due to legal, educational, moral, and spiritual concerns; these are decisions you must make a choice on and not look back at once you have made the choice. This is a good time to make some changes in your life. Remember, manifestation of what we desire is 1% luck and 99% attitude. Continue to be positive and truly mean it. Don't put on the "positive" face for others, reach deep into your soul and find the positive that dwells within you.

During March 2011, you will begin the "fresh start" of your next forecast. As you know, most "predictive" or "annual" horoscopes run from birthday to birthday, not on a calendar year. There will be energies around you that are very dynamic and represent a major turning point in your life. It will provide you with a better understanding of what your future path is and how all of this past year's events have tied into the future. Your intuition is right on target this month and your understanding nature helps someone move forward in his or her life. Your strength and caring gives them the added strength that they need to make this decision. Another energy shift will occur around this time and will last about 7 years. It deals with accents on your past karma, spirituality, and hidden enemies. Remember, those hidden enemies can be your own self sabotage. You will be going down paths you never expected and it is important to keep an open mind about this journey. You will experience and unexpected spiritual awakening but the true results will not be felt until later in the year. You will begin to go on spiritual retreats to understand this new path.

Begin April 2011 with a new mantra of "a truthful approach to life" Honesty with self and others especially in relationships will benefit you immensely. It will give meaning to what you wish for and prevent any misunderstandings later. The energy in your life is continuing to move into the new shift, so be open and understanding since this shift will continue throughout most of the year. April is when you will start to leave many confusing and painful experiences behind you. You will begin to come out of mourning and rediscover the world.

In May 2011, this will be a very busy period in your life. This time in your life will be the "rush hour" phase of the year without the mental strength you need. This will give you unneeded extra stress in your world. Patience is again caution here. Some minor health issues may plague you around this time as well. Keep balance and harmony around you and remember to allow people to care for you as you have for them. In fact, from now until 2012, you will spend considerable time on how you live your life and what you can do to change how you live. This is an important personal journey, as it will help heal you both physically and mentally. You may feel as if the tensions in your life are driving you crazy but another shift of energy is coming up in June.

During June 2011, your need for love, emotional support, and companionship is satisfied by participating in social, domestic, and romantic adventures. For you to find love and a soul mate, you have to go out and play the field. Reach deep for the courage and do it, since you getting out where the people are is where you will meet your love. It will happen quickly and potential for engagement and marriage are waiting for you to take the risk. Sometime during the summer, your children will achieve a success or something they have wanted and it will make you extremely proud of them.

July 2011 is when you will be bountiful with others and that bounty will flow back to you threefold. Good fortune is on your side now and pushing you to discover the new and improved you. This bounty is prepping you for things to happen in August.

In August 2011, you will start to travel but not for the reasons you think. This will be a time to find your "religion" and achieve some spiritual growth. Marriage and relationships will come into sharp focus at this time and it is a time for you to invest in real estate. A person that you have known previously will return into your life but now you will look at them differently. I don't believe this is "E" because according to your chart, it seems as if they were a friend or acquaintance in your past. This is the relationship that you will look at for the long haul. But, it comes with a warning, take this slow and take your time committing. You want to ensure that there is no misunderstanding of what you want and what you find acceptable and unacceptable in a relationship. Do not compromise your health during this time and stand by your guns. This will make the relationship all the more sweet and worthwhile. Your imagination and intuition become deeper and truer. Tap into that deeper level of intuition at this time, since it will guide you through the next phase of change and energy shift. Stability and calm will enter your life by this time in 2012.

September 2011 will see your physical drive and energy very high. Take the initiative to explore the world at large, even if it is only your little piece of the world. You will meet many new people and find a new opportunity being offered to you. This new opportunity will be a great success.

During October 2011, you will find yourself a little more stressed and tense but this seems to be the "normal" type of stress associated with deadlines or planning something. Watch your diet this month as during this time you may be a bit "carb impulsive".

As October transitions into November, you may see a "power struggle" in your personal relationship. Stand your ground and keep your finances separate from theirs. I can't tell if this is family, love, or friends.

December 2011 will find you happy, healthy and stronger than you have been in previous years. You will be energetic; doing something, you love as a second career, and enjoying the warm buzz of having love, family, and friends. This month is the time to focus on family and friends; show them the gratitude you have for their diligence and care you received while on this journey. December will also be set aside for you to redesigning your future.

While the above is sort of a month-by-month editorial of the year; overall, your specific key areas, social, love, health, and finance look very good. In your health for 2011, you will have excellent health with only a few minor "usual" illnesses such as cold or flu. In the love department for 2011, romance has caused problems in the past but by going out, playing the field a bit, you will find the one who takes your breath away and respects the wonderful being you are. Engagement at the very least is on target for this coming year and a fulfilling and loving relationship. Socially, you will need to tamper down your natural dislike of new things and get out. Get involved with a variety of groups and meet some new people. If you stay with your current pattern, you may miss the romance that is coming this year. Remember, he doesn't know where you live, so you have to be out in public for him to find you. 😊 This is not a live you will find on the internet or a traditional singles venue; I believe you will meet him on one of your spiritual trips. In general, your finances are going to be good but you will come into a second career, I get the feeling it will be working from the home, but it will be successful monetarily. The only caveat is that you have to make the effort and start the ball rolling.

It looks like you have a wonderful new year ahead of you. It's filled with happiness, passion, love, family, and quests. As with anything, free will dictates what comes or what does not come, so it is up to you to make the first few steps.
